

Rohan Paul was a Managing Director, Investment Banking, at JPM Chase in New York, covering clients in the Global Metals and Mining Industry for 17 years, continuing his career in a similar capacity, as a Managing Director, Wells Fargo Securities for 13 years, covering both the Metals and Chemicals industries. Mr. Paul originated, structured and executed corporate advisory, senior bank debt, structured finance and equity transactions at both firms. Mr. Paul was instrumental in structuring the first steel inventory securitization, the first 13-year project financing of a large steel facility for a multinational Joint Venture, with strategic partners across three continents, and the first left lead High Yield financing for a predecessor firm of JPMorgan Chase. He has executed over 75 corporate finance transactions for $30 billion.

More recently, Mr. Paul joined Deloitte as a Client Relationship Executive, covering clients in the Financial Institutions industry. He brings Deloitte Subject Matter Experts to help clients grow their businesses, improve their efficiency ratios and meet their regulatory requirements.

Mr. Paul earned his Grade 8 Piano Performance Diploma, with Distinction, from the Royal College of Music, London, a Bachelor of Arts Degree from Princeton's School of Public and International Affairs, summa cum laude, and an MBA from Wharton. He currently serves on the Board of the World Affairs Council of Charlotte, the Foundation Board of the North Carolina School of Science and Mathematics, and as Treasurer of his class at Princeton.

Mr. Paul grew up in Mumbai, Trinidad, The Hague and London before attending college in the United States.